

Specialist Residential College

Will you need a specialist residential college?

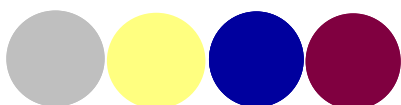

You will need to visit a local college.

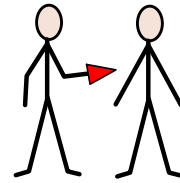

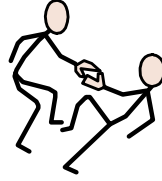

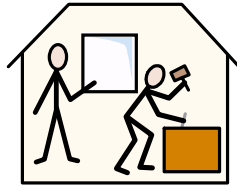

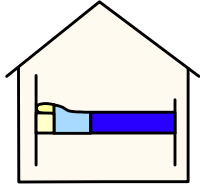

If a local college can't help you learn

You can visit a Specialist residential College

Going to specialist residential college can help you to:

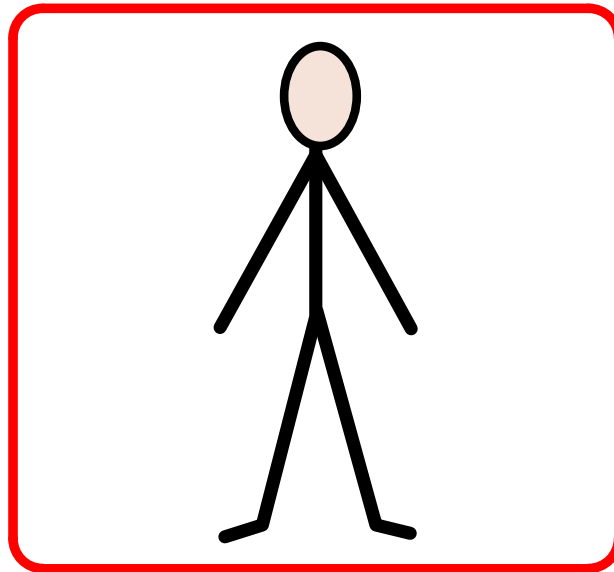

travel independently

read

do Art

cook

clean

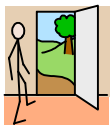

use money

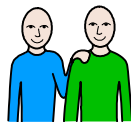

write

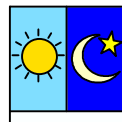

IT

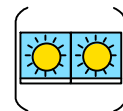

go out

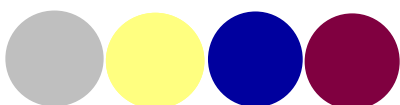

with friends

in the evening

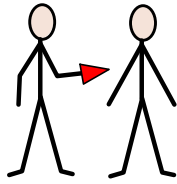

/ weekend

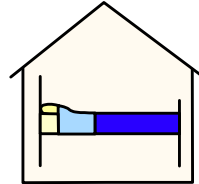

When

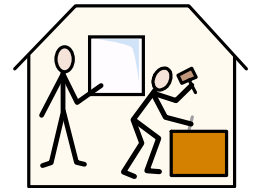

you

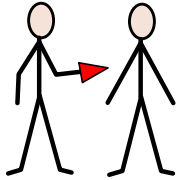

visit a

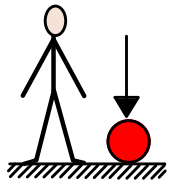

specialist residential

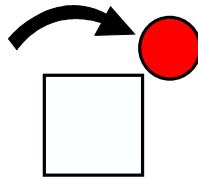

college,

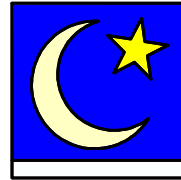

You

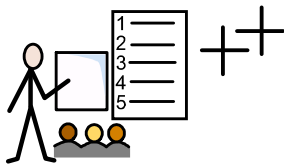

might stay

over night.

Most courses

are

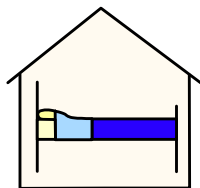

2

or

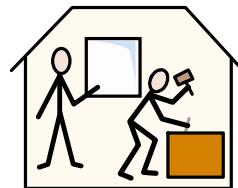

3

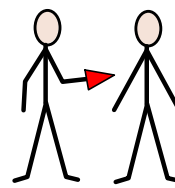

years

At a specialist residential

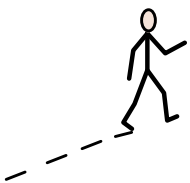

college

you

stay

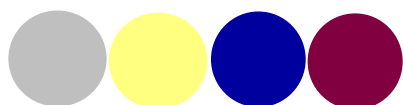

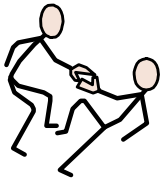

away

from

home

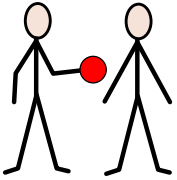

For help,

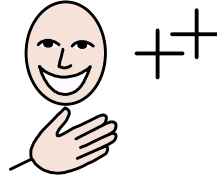

talk to:

your parents /

carers

School staff

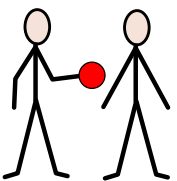

your

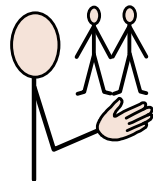

Connexions

Personal Adviser

and your

social worker

